Alpha Leadership Course: Peter & Maureen Maroney—Room 109

By now, many people in our church have seen the value of the Alpha Course. But Peter & Maureen have a desire to reach the lost and are looking for a few key leaders to help them with this vision. If you are interested please see Peter to join this group.

Back To Basics: Parental skills that work – Karol Neimeister—Library

Re-introducing some proven parenting techniques that get lost over the years. If your parenting tools have become dull or ineffective, these techniques will restore order and peace; material is good for parents of children of any age.

Men's Bible Study – Steve Skeie—Room 105

Come enjoy some time with other men in the church and look together at what the Bible says to us about life. Enrich your life by deepening your relationship with other men. We will be discussing the issues that speak directly to situations men face as husbands, fathers, and leaders.

Moral Dilemmas: Sticking up for what's right – Pastor Danny—Room 110

“Do the right thing.” You’ve heard that before. But is the “right thing?” In this culture, the lines of right and wrong have been blurred. This class is a re-examination of the biblical basis for ethics in our personal lives and for our society. We will look at issues of integrity, sexual ethics, morality including biblical solutions for hot button topics our society is debating.

Taking Flight from the Empty Nest – Donna Davis– Room 106

Based on the book by Mary Jenson, Donna Davis will lead a discussion of the enormous changes that occur emotionally and practically as the nest empties and children take flight. We will be talking about ways to have fresh and fruitful growth that you can have in your relationship with your spouse, with your grown-up children, and with God.

Who Made the Moon? – Pastor Davis & Ted Hunt—Room 124

Can faith and science agree about the origins of the universe? What are the ramifications of having an “old earth” view or a “young earth” view of our physical world? How should we interpret the Genesis creation account? Why does it matter? Come join with Pastor Davis and Ted Hunt in a book review and discussion of these challenging questions.
